

The Red Rock Public Library would like to thank everyone that participated in our Christmas contests!

Congratulations to Randie Jacobs, winner of the Read Across Canada reading challenge.

Congratulations to the prize winners of the adult song scramble- Gordon Henderson and Sandra Parker

Congratulations to the prize winners of the children's book title scramble- Cooper, Hunter, Bennett and Shyann

Thank you to all of the kids that created gingerbread crafts for our window display! Everyone is receiving a small Christmas prize.

And finally, thank you to Friends of the Red Rock Public Library for sponsorship of the prizes. Thank you to Dampier's Offshore Variety Store and the Northern Credit Union for handing out entries for our contests!

The Board and staff would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas! Please note the library will be closed for holidays beginning on December 24 and reopening for curbside service on January 5 at 2 pm. So get stocked up on your holiday reads!
